

The Village Press Fundraiser Gift Packs

Your perfect solution.

When your school, organisation, or sports team needs to raise funds, think of Village Press Extra Virgin Olive Oil. We are proud to support fundraising activities across many New Zealand communities with our high quality oils which are loved by everyone.

We feature three beautifully presented bottles of Extra Virgin Olive Oils, and two choices of gift packs. For every 3-pack you sell at $25, your fundraising efforts receives $5.00. Depending on the number of participants, your fundraising activity can easily exceed expectations.

There are no upfront costs, no products to return and we don't require a minimum to sell.

Here's how it works...

Then, return the completed form to us and we will provide you everything you need to start fundraising!

- Quality products for maximum return, it is value and support for a worthwhile cause.
- You are selling products that are healthy and delicious from New Zealand and around the world.
- A variety of perfectly balanced flavours in two different gift pack options. This makes it appealing for people to buy one of each.
- Benefits that will appeal to many people's palates throughout your community for positive results.
- For large team efforts experienced with fundraising, we are amenable to a customised plan for threebottle packs to help maximise your returns.
